

Note from Pine Shores President...

Hello, My Artistic Friends,

As we begin to sniff fall in the air, we may also start thinking of a little more time indoors to create, whether we're painters, sculptors, weavers . . . Take a look at the unusual new classes being offered, as well as interesting exhibits both in our Stafford building and in Tuckerton. It's amazing what we can do!

I have a favor to ask of you. As the elevator saga plays on, and on, it seems that much of the fault may be ours. We're not heeding the pleas of Stafford Public Works to make absolutely certain that as soon as we unload our cargo on the 1st floor, we immediately PUSH and HOLD the black button until we hear the elevator reach the 2nd floor. It has to do with the hydraulics.

My favor is this: Watch that elevator, and each other, like hawks! If you see that it's in the down position, please take it upon yourselves to push and hold the 2nd floor black button to raise it to the top floor. We can't complain if we're not doing our part!
